SATURDAY, MARCH 7, 1747. [N°. 147.]

To the AUTHOR, &c.

A DISSUASIVE from OPPOSITION, addreſs'd to Country Gentlemen.

Qui ſimulat verbis, nec corde eſt fidus amicus. CATO.

AS the preſent Diſpoſition of Men ſeems tending towards the ſetting up a new Oppoſition, it may be worth while to conſider what Fruits the Nation may expect from it; and, if none are to be expected, whether it will be adviſeable for any wiſe Man to enter into it. The moſt prevailing Reaſons aſſign'd for it are the following:

" The Diſappointment of all honeſt Mens Hopes, who, " after the Fall of the Father of Corruption, promiſed themſelves the Redreſs of that baleful Influence; the Impotence of his Succeſſors, who carry on a War as ignominiouſly as he maintain'd Peace, negociating in the Seaſon " for Campaigns and making Diverſions after Armies " were retir'd into Winter-Quarters; the Increaſe of Taxes " on the Dimunition of Forces; the truſting the whole " Operations of Government to Children; the Monopoly " of all Employments by ſingle Families, and the Weakneſs of a Miniſtry who betray or abandon every Friend, " and careſs or reward every Enemy."

Theſe I own are great and national Provocations, and ſome of them the ſame that gave Life to the laſt, and which in all Ages have produc'd Oppoſition and Patriotiſm: But what have theſe produc'd? Too melancholy Experience ſhews, that Redreſs of Grievances is never attain'd, and that, tho' the Perſons of the Oppreſſors may be removed, the ſame Iniquity ſubſiſts, and finds Conntenance and Employment from the very Perſons who were moſt clamorous againſt it: Could an Oppoſition be more united in Appearance, or more diſintereſted, than that which overthrew the old Corruptor? Could a Sett of Men be more tied down to the Intereſt of their Country by Vows, by Profeſſions, by Actions, by common Sufferings and Perſecutions?—Was there a ſingle Conſtitutional Bill, for which they did not annually ſtruggle? Was there any Enquiry into public Abuſes, which they did not glorioufly promote? Any righteous Cenſure of bad Meaſures, which they did not attempt? Yet, they had no ſooner ſucceeded in their Endeavours, and turn'd their laborious Hands to cleanſe the Augean Table, than they were diſturb'd, and puffed away by the Breath of perjured Boys and ſhameleſs Declaimers, inliſted privately in the Service of the iniquitous Remains of him they had ſo loudly and commendably declaim'd againſt.

Can the moſt romantic Patriotiſm draw a Picture to her Imagination of ſuch a Hero as ſhe would moſt wiſh to aſſert her Cauſe, who would not baſely betray the amiable Patroneſs on the Glimpſe of private Emolument? Let us ſketch out the Features of ſuch a Character: She would, it may be ſuppoſed, ſelect a Youth (for as ſhe is old faſhion'd ſhe might be ſimple enough to believe that Scene leaſt ſubject to Corruption) whoſe firſt Entry into the World ſhould be diſtinguiſh'd by a generous Sacrifice of his little Fortune to the Integrity of his Conſcience, and who, juſt warm'd by the Orations of Demoſthenes and Cicero, ſhould charm the nodding Fathers with apt Tranſlations and florid Applications; his Voice ſhould be ſonorous, his Diction ſounding, his Actions theatric, his Manner dictatorial, and his Invectives bitter: Heavens! how Patriotiſm muſt love ſuch a hopeful Lad, and, in the Fooliſhneſs of her Fondneſs, how muſt ſhe overlook the Want of all Reaſon and Argument! how much happier ſtill muſt ſhe be, ſhould even her Foes agree to celebrate this riſing Genius! her moſt primitive Sages give him Benedictions, and her honourable Women Legacies! Thro' a quick Succeſſion of Place and Penſion Bills, thro' combating Standing Armies and Foreign Forces, he ſhall riſe to be the Head of his Party, and to the Dignity of ſitting in ſecret Judgment on the Oppreſſor of his Country, whoſe dirty Tools and Dependants ſhould ſhudder at his Name, and court the young Hero to receive the Golden Prize of his oratorical Atchievements.—But he, with a true Contempt of every ſordid, every ſelfiſh View, ſhall order them to beſtow their Places and Honours on his Creatures, and then perhaps——why then perhaps the virtuous Youth may condeſcend to honour them with the Acceptance of the beſt Place amongſt them himſelf. But we will give this extraordinary Character a Name, and to avoid confounding him with his new Allies call him Abyſſus. When inſtall'd in his new Office, Abyſſus ſhall oppoſe every Queſtion which is not introduc'd or adapted by Miniſterial Sagacity; he ſhall defeat every Conſtitutional Bill, ridicule every Enquiry, fall foul on all who dare ſupport a Character that he has deſerted, and openly protect the over-grown Family of a wicked Miniſter, who had enriched themſelves with the Spoils of their Country: In ſhort, Abyſſus ſhall retain nothing of his former Patriotiſm but the Abuſe, to be diſtributed alike on all who have been or may ſtill be Patriots. But poſſibly I may be thought to have overcharg'd this Picture, and made it too groſs for a real Likeneſs; therefore, to clear up the Queſtion whether Patriotiſm has or has not been diſappointed in ſome of her Elves, I ſhall aſk a few Queſtions.

Who was one of the warmeſt Antagoniſts of a former Miniſter? Who the loudeſt Exclaimer againſt any who, as he thought, had deſerted the Party? Who manifeſted the greateſt Contempt for the preſent Adminiſtration? Who has moſt notoriouſly and corruptly done what he had vehemently charged as diſhonourable in others? Whom do the Party now look upon as their greateſt Betrayer? Who has moſt ſervily courted both the former and the preſent M———y? Who has inſulted the Repreſentatives of the People, whenever they have offer'd any thing for the People's Service? Who has treated the faireſt Motions with the moſt indecent Language? Who has ſatiriz'd the Ingenuity of returning Patriots, and loaded them with Obloquy; and why? But becauſe they had perform'd part of their Engagements, and by obtaining a Place-Bill had given Proofs to their Country of their honeſt Intentions, if they had not been defeated by the Impetuoſity of mercenary Incendiaries and proſtitute Orators.

Laſtly, I ſhall aſk, Who was once the Darling of the People? Who is now the Favourite of the M———y? Who was the popular Champion of the Subject? Who is the ſcurrilous Bully of the Adminiſtration, and the moſt deſpis'd even among the moſt deſpicable?

Probably, this Drawcanſirism for the M———y, may be the moſt meritorious in the whole Liſt of ſuch an Apoſtate's Qualifications, as well as the moſt prudent; as perhaps it may be a Kind of Juſtice to take up the Protection of thoſe whoſe Fears he had bullied, and common Prudence to prevent another's bullying them again out of what he is already in Poſſeſſion: Beſides, a Duel, or at leaſt a threaten'd one, (for in public Aſſemblies the greateſt Cowards may ſafely hazard a Challenge) may get rid of an Attack that would be too hard for any Logic; and I don't ſee why ſingle Combat may not be as rational a Method of deciding on the loſt Reputation of a Man, as in old Times it was held a Specific for the damag'd Chaſtity of a fair Lady. Should any impertinent Recollector of paſt Orations be ſo troubleſome as to aſk a perplexing Queſtion, and expect that Rhetoric ſhould deſcend to Categoricals; if a forward Practitioner in the Oppoſition ſhould attempt to aſk ſuch a Man as the imaginary Abyſſus, with what Front he can now contradict the whole Tenour of his former Conduct; how he, who was once the Promoter of public Enquiries, ſhould now oppoſe and ſtifle them; how he, when he has the Power to grant, ſhould be the foremoſt to deny Redreſs to his Fellow-Subjects and former Fellow-Sufferers; and how he can ſee Merit in Placemen, and Peeviſhneſs and Malignancy in Opponents? I ſay, if an imaginary Abyſſus ſhould be aſked a civil Account of all this, is there ſo ſhort, ſo apt an Anſwer to be given as that which the fine Gentleman in the Play gave the inquiſitive injur'd Huſband, Sir, I wear a Sword! Wear a Sword, Sir? Aye, Sir, I wear a Sword; while, at the ſame Time, he neither underſtands or dares to draw it, and wears it like his Oratory only for occaſional Shew.

Such a profligate Character as this of the imaginary Abyſſus, would diſcourage many ſober Men from any Attempts to relieve their groaning Country. If Youth can be ſo tainted, and Public Spirit ſo corruptible; if M——rs will lay out ſo largely to ſeduce the Honeſty of the riſing Generation;—— to what Reſources can the virtuous Few have Recourſe!

To ſome new Clime, or far more diſtant Sky,
O friendleſs, and forſaken Virtue fly!
Thy Engliſh Air is deadly to thee grown.

The faireſt Shews of Virtue are employ'd to acquire or preſerve Power and Gain, Diſintereſtedneſs is a Snare laid for a Salary; Candour, a Declaration that any Price will be to bribe an Adverſary; and as the one is ready to contradict all he has ſaid, the other is willing to forget it all. The latter can forgive every thing but the Loſs of Power, as he can bear every thing but perſonal Invectives: The former can forgive every thing but more Integrity than his own, as he can bear every thing but perſonal Indigence. The one cheats himſelf with the Name of Power, the other cheats all the World with the Name of Virtue. The one is happy to have the Name of Miniſter, tho' a Tool to all his Aſſociates; the other made Tools of all his Aſſociates to obtain the Subſtantial of a Miniſter. The one would do right if he durſt; the other does wrong becauſe he dares.

If, after this Dehortation, I ſhould be aſk'd, whether I would adviſe Patience, Silence and more long Suffering; I reply No. Tho' I diſſuade an Oppoſition that has viſionary Views, and chimerical Proſpects; far be it from me to counſel Silence and total Inactivity. Tho' we have not a M——try that will ſuffer the Annihilation of Penſions and unneceſſary Places, at leaſt we have one wondrouſly willing to give them to every conforming Proſtitute. A M——ry, who good Men! rejoice more over one Oppo nent that repenteth than over Ninety and Nine of the Flock that never ſtray'd. Abuſe, aſperſe, defame all you can, it ſhall however be well with you and yours: What more can a Country Gentleman require? Former Miniſters exacted implicit Obedience and never-ſwerving Votes; —— all that their truly Chriſtian Succeſſors demand, is to be not-a-little rail'd at: They have no Gall in their Nature, no Revenge in their Compoſition; ſmite them on one Cheek, and they will paſſively turn the other; take their Cloak, and they will give you their Coat alſo; ſeize upon one Place, and in ſix Weeks Time they will give you a better: Can you find in your Hearts to depoſe ſuch meek-ſpirited Rulers, who guard your Treaſury while you ſleep, protect your Rights while you wake; direct your Fleets at Sea and your Armies by Land, and covet neither your Ox nor your Aſs, nor any thing that is yours?

ITALY.

Turin, Feb. 18. We have nothing new from the Borders of the Var, on which the beſt Part of the French, as well as of our Army, continues encamp'd. By all Accounts the Enemy ſuffer greatly from the Want of Subſiſtances, and muſt ſoon withdraw farther into Provence. They have been no leſs than four or five Days without Bread, and particularly the Column that march'd by the Mountains, is repreſented as quite ruined and reduced. Three Imperial Regiments of Foot are in full March towards Genoa, whither it is aſſured the Enemy are preparing to ſend Officers, Engineers, and a Body of Troops by Sea. All the Imperial Cavalry is gone into Piedmont, and ſome of their Generals daily paſs through this Town in their Way to Novi. General O Donnel, amonſt the reſt, arrived on the 16th at Night, and ſet out the next Day for Vienna, whither he is diſpatch'd by Count Brown. Letters from Villa Franca mention, that the Iſlands of St. Honoree and St. Marguerite are garriſon'd with between 4 and 500 Auſtrian Troops, who are provided with two Month's Proviſions, and a proper Quantity of military Stores, and ſome ſmall Engliſh Veſſels are ſtationed to prevent the Enemy's making an Attempt to retake them, and to aſſiſt the Garriſon; and that the Feverſham Man of War lately met with and took a Spaniſh Settee, having on board ninety-three Spaniſh Officers and Soldiers, which had been ſome Time on the Paſſage from Ceuta to Naples: The Officers and Soldiers are ſent Priſoners to Minorca.

HOLLAND.

Utrecht, March 8. 'Twas on the 28th paſt, between 7 and 8 in the Morning, that an Opening was made in the Dyke of Leck, half Way between the City of Wick-te-Duurſtede and the Paſſage of Beuſecom, that is, Half a League from each. We did perceive here no Effect of the Inundation till the 3d Inſtant about Noon. The Water then approaching with a Noiſe reſembling a Cataract, filled all the Low Country, and raiſed our Canals two Foot and a half in 8 Hours. It has continued to raiſe ever ſince; but the Increaſe has not been above half a Foot in 24 Hours. All our Neighbourhood is now entirely drowned, and looks like the Ocean, and in ſome Places only the Tops of the Houſes are to be ſeen. Our fine Gardens are entirely ruined, and the noble Cauſey of Bilt exiſts no more, the Waters having not only carried off the Pavement, but penetrated the Earth in ſuch a Manner, that the heavieſt Stones thrown in ſink as into an Abyſs. In ſhort, we are here as in an Iſland divided betwixt Hope and Fear, ſince we know by Tradition, that about 110 Years ago, the Water made a Breach in the ſame Dyke, and roſe ſo high in this City, that a Man might with his Hands dip Water out of the Canals as he ſtood upon the Bridges. The Water ſunk a great deal in the Leck laſt Week: but the Fall has been greater ſince: However, we are not without Apprehenſions of a Return, as the Letters from Duſſeldorp and Cologne mention a new Increaſe in the Rhine.

May'ſt thou ſtill ſhun the Coward and the Slave,
And thy ſoft Slumbers only eaſe the Brave.

By Letters from Liverpool, dated Feb. 27, we learn, that a few Days ago a very barbarous Murder was committed near Park-Gate in Cheshire, in the following Manner, viz. One Mr. Matthew, an idle dissolute Fellow, by Profession an Attorney, being out late drinking, came home in the Night and found his Wife and his Servant-Maid in Bed together, imagining he would not have come home that Night, the Want of being waited for so provoked him, that he swore he would kill his Wife, and drew a Knife for that Purpose; the Maid interposed, in order to save her Mistress, when the Villain immediately stabb'd the Girl in the Belly, and ripp'd her up, upon which she expir'd directly: He was the next Morning apprehended and conducted to Chester Castle.

Last Saturday Night a Gentleman's Footman was found shot through the Head in Hyde-Park, with a Pistol by him, with which it is supposed he shot himself: A Piece of Paper was found in his Pocket with these Words, I will not be a Slave any longer to the best Gentleman in England.

On Wednesday Evening Mr. Thomas, a sober young Man a Custom-House Waterman, was drown'd going through London-Bridge.

Yesterday Se'nnight ten Prisoners were tried at the Old Baily, one of whom was capitally convicted, viz. Henry Simms, commonly call'd Gentleman Harry, for a Robbery on the Highway. Six were cast for Transportation, and three acquitted.

One was burnt in the Hand, and three ordered to be whipp'd.

Henry Simms, after Sentence of Death was passed upon him, behav'd with great Indecency to the Court, and told them, if it had not been for him it would have been a Maiden Sessions, but now he must be hang'd by himself.

The Court adjourn'd to Saturday Morning, to admit John Blaw, of Castlehill in the County of Fife, Esq; to Bail, which was then done accordingly, and not on Friday as was before mentioned by Mistake: This we think proper to notice, as it was a singular Act of Humanity in the Court to meet again at that Time, for no other Business than merely to enlarge Mr. Blaw, who had not got his Bail ready on Friday, when the Session was to have ended. Mr. Blaw himself is bound in the Sum of 500 l. and four others in 250 l. each.

The next Sessions, at the Old Baily, will be on Wednesday the 29th of April; at Hicks's-Hall, on Tuesday the 28th; and at Westminster and Guildhall on Monday the 27th of April.

Extract of a Letter from Capt. John Davidson, Commander of the Betty of Sunderland, to his Owner.

"SIR, Amsterdam, Jan. 31, 1747.

The 29th of this Month, being about 7 or 8 Leagues distant from Gorce, we observed a Dogger Privateer bearing down upon us; whereupon we made all ready to give him a proper Reception, Mr. Russell's Bilander being then in Company. I fought him for above two Hours; but my Neighbour being unable to stand to any longer, made off about the Middle of our Engagement. The Privateer lay so nigh to us, that we were almost Yard-Arm and Yard-Arm: At length we made him sheer off with great Loss of Men. Afterwards, observing him make for my Comrade, (tho' he had deserted me) I bore down upon him, and made him make quite off, or undoubtedly Mr. Russel must have been taken. I thank God none of our Crew received any Harm; but our Sails and Rigging are almost shot to Pieces. The Dogger mounted 12 Carriage Guns, and had 100 Men."

Wednesday came Advice, that the Diligence, Strong, bound from Leverpool to London, laden with Cheese and Lead, is taken by a French Privateer and carried into Cherburgh.

The same Day there was an Account that the Nancy, Magrath, from Jamaica for London, is taken and carried into Cape Francois.

The Dursley, Pitman, from Jamaica for Bristol, is taken and carried into ditto.

Printed for M. Cooper, at the Globe in Pater-noster Row.

Dr. R. NELSON, being well known to have made the Cure of Seminal and Genital Imbecilities his chief Study and Practice for above thirty Years, does recommend his most Noble Cleansing and Strengthning ELIXIR, which thousands of People have experienced, to be the only BALSAMICK HEALING RESTORING Medicine in the World.

For Gleets and Weaknesses.

THE Bane of Virility in the one Sex, and Destroyer of Fertility in the other, whether from ill cur'd Venereal Infections (than which nothing is more common) or from inordinate Coition, or Self-Pollution (that cursed School Wickedness, which spoils all our Youth, by nipping their Manhood in the Bud) or from involuntary Emissions a Nights in the Sleep, or in the Day Time upon Stool or with the Urine, or from Falls, Blows, Strains, Wrenches, or the like, which drain, and dry up, the Seminals, and wither, as it were the Generative Faculties, causing Impotency in Men, the Fluor Albus, and Barrenness in Women, (or but a weakly, lucky Offspring if any) and in the long Run (by impoverishing the Blood and Spirits) Melancholy, Vapours, Decays of Nature, and Consumptions.

No Medicine can be more pleasant to take, nor any Thing upon Earth more effectual for the Purposes; for let the Imbecility be ever so great, or of ever so long standing, and be either in the Parts Spermatick Vessels, or Back, with Pain, or without, it certainly Cures, by reviving and enriching the Blood and Spirits, comforting, nourishing, and replenishing the Reins and Seminals, and strengthning, and restoring the Genital Parts in both Sexes, how much soever weakned, rendred cold, or deadned, and bringing them to their natural Force, Warmth, and Vigour, by thickening and fertilizing the Seed, which before was thin, watery, or yellowish, and consequently insufficient either for Procreation or the Act of it.

All Disorders of the Urine, as Difficulty in the making or retaining it, or its dribling away, hot or smarting, or foul, slimy, thready, greasy or flinking, whether from Gravel, Stone, Strangury, or a Venereal Caufe are likewise speedily cured by it, and the Water made to be held as strongly, and yet brought away as freely, easily, and freemish, and clear as ever.

Price 5 s. a Bottle. Prepared by the abovesaid Author, and sold only) sealed up with Directions how to take it) at Mr. Corbet's Bookseller, at Addison's Head, opposite St. Dunstan's Church, Fleet-Street, and by Henry Cook, under the Royal Exchange, asking only for 4 5 s. Bottle of Elixir.

The most wonderful cleansing and strengthning Drops for all Sorts of Gleets, and Seminal Weaknesses and Imbecilities of the Generative Parts and Faculties, preventing Miscarriages in Women; and to cleanse and strengthen the Reins, Kidnies and Bladder, cure weak Backs, Strangories, Gravel, and Stoppage of the Urine, and for which it has gained such Repute, that near 20000 Bottles have been sold since April 1734, that they were first publish'd.

THESE incomparable Drops, which for the abovesaid Disorders are not to be equall'd in the whole Art of Medicines were prescrib'd by the late Dr. Ratcliffe, for a certain noble Lord, who for a long Time had been vex'd with an old obstinate Gleet and Weakness, of which he was cured by them in a few Days, beyond all Expectation, after he had been harrass'd with Electuaries, Boluses, Pills, Potions, Injections, and a hundred other Medicines, for many Months together in vain.

The Apothecary who prepared them for him according to the Doctor's Prescription (which he has still upon his File) has made Use of them ever since to Numbers of People in the very worst of Gleets, seminal and genital Imbecilities and Infertilities, Pains in the Back and Reins, Disorders of the Urine and Gravel, &c. with the utmost Success and Safety; as also in all Weaknesses from Strains, as well as Venereal Relicts, excessive Coition, Self Pollution, seminal Emissions in Sleep, Falls, Blows, Wrenches, and the like, in both Sexes.

And as they have never once failed him, even in Cases thought to be incurable, he now, for general Good, has made them publick: And that the meaner Sort of People might partake of the Benefit of so divine a Remedy as well as the Rich, he has put them up in Bottles of but 3 s. 6 d each, tho' for the Excellency of their Effects they are worth their Weight in Gold, more especially as one Bottle of them generally cures, even in the most draining Gleets, and grievous Relaxations and Weaknesses of the Seminals and Genitals, as also of the Back and Reins, that are.

Nor can there be prepared, by any Art or Skill, a more cleansing and healing, or a more strengthening and invigorating Medicine, or one that can more effectually cure Impotency, or promote Fertility, than this, as every one that but once tries it will say, by their soon finding the Difference between this and other Remedies; for it will do more in one Day towards restoring in these Weaknesses than any others can in ten, and is of so corroborating a Nature that it may be entirely rely'd upon for curing perfectly and firmly, without Fear of Relapse, even in the tenderest Constitutions, which can hardly be said of any other Medicine; and it is withal so elegantly pleasant to the Palate, and so agreeable to the Stomach that the nicest Person is delighted with it.

Mr. West, Goldsmith, who us'd to sell these Drops being dead, they are now Sold only by his Son in Law, Mr. Johnson, a Baker, at the Seven Stars, in Vere-street, near Clare Market, sealed up, with Directions, for any Messenger upon asking only for a Bottle of Drops, and paying 3 s 6 d.

ANTI-SIPHYLICON

THE only ſhort and moſt infallible CURE in the Univerſe for the Venereal Diſeaſe from the ſlighteſt Infection to the moſt extreame and deplorable Degree of it, even when the Blood and Juices are thoroughly contaminated with its malignant Virus, and the very Bones are affected with it.

Freſh Infections, call'd Claps, with all their attendant Symptoms, tho' ever ſo ſevere, are entirely carried off by it in a few Days, and ſo as effectually to prevent the Blood and Juices from being tainted with any remaining Relicks, on one Hand, or a ſeminal Gleet, or Weakneſs, to happen on the other.

And the moſt inveterate Degree of the French Illneſs, attended with nocturnal Pains, univerſal Breakings-out, and all other the moſt exaſperated Symptoms, are ſoon overcome by it, and effectually and much more ſafely cured than by Salivation, Inungation, or any other Method whatever, and in ſo eaſy and pleaſant a Manner, without impairing Strength, or occaſioning any Inconvenience, as loudly to beſpeak it the only appoſite Remedy, or true Venereal Antidote in the World, and this ſome Thouſands have, to their great Joy, experienced.

It is pleaſant to take, occaſions no Sickneſs or Diſorder, nor requires Confinement, but may be taken, and the Cure be accompliſhed, without the Knowledge of the neareſt Friend.

Thoſe who ſuſpect they have received an Injury may, by only a Doſe or two of it, be perfectly freed from all Apprehenſions; for it ſuffers no lurking Venom to lie hid in the Body, but wholly extirpates it, Root and Branch, in a gentle, eaſy, and moſt effectual Manner.

All ſuch, likewiſe, as doubt they have ſome remaining Relicks of former Injuries, may, by a few Doſes of it, entirely free themſelves from all Suſpicions of that Kind; for it admits of no Foulneſs, Corruption, or Putrefaction whatever, to remain in the Fluids, or to adhere to the Solids; and, on that Account, in all Scorbutick, Scrophulous, and even Leprous Eruptions, or Foulneſſes of the Skin, or glandulous Swellings, and Impurities of the Juices, it does more by one Doſe than any other Medicine, yet known, can by ten.

The Price of this moſt noble Anti-Siphylicon is but ſix Shillings a Pot, which, conſidering its extraordinary Efficacy, one Pot only being ſufficient, in moſt Caſes, to accompliſh the Cure, is not a tenth Part of its Value; and is appointed by the Author to be had only at Mr. Radford's Toy-ſhop, at the Roſe and Crown, againſt St. Clement's Church-yard, in the Strand, ready ſealed up, with a Book of Inſtructions, by the Peruſal of which all Perſons who were ever affected with any Degree of the Venereal Diſeaſe may perfectly underſtand their own Condition, and certainly know when, and when not, the Venereal Poiſon is entirely rooted out of their Bodies. Note, Ask only for a Six Shilling Pot for the Scurvy.

Concerning Gleets and Seminal Weakneſſes of all Kinds.

ALL judicious Phyſicians and Surgeons allow, that nothing is more difficult to cure than Stubborn Gleets and Seminal Weakneſſes whether occaſion'd by too ſevere purging for Venereal Injuries, violent Strains, Peſſatio ſui, or any other Cauſe whatever; and that they are dangerous in their Conſequences, as well as difficult to cure, is as certain ſince they exceedingly weaken the Generative Faculties, infeeble the whole Nervous Syſtem, often bring on Hectick Heats, a Tabes Dorſalis, or Conſumpiton of the Back, or an Atrophy or Nervous Conſumption which frequently terminate in Death itſelf.

All ſuch therefore who have the Misfortune to be troubled with Old ſtubborn Gleets, Seminal Effuſions, Involuntary Emiſſions, exceſſive Nocturnal Pollutions, or any Weakneſs of the Kidneys, Ureters, or Bladder, the Diabetis, Incontinency of Urine, or Difficulty of holding their Water, would doubtleſs be glad to meet with a certain, ſafe and ſpeedy Cure, which they muſt aſſuredly may, by the taking only a ſmall Quantity of a tranſcendent Balſamick Reſtrictive Electuary, now publiſhed for a general Good, after having for many Years in private Practice been experienced never once to fail perfectly curing the moſt ſtubborn Gleets known, in a few Days, without Difficulty or Trouble; as alſo all other Weakneſſes of the Back, Reins, Seminal Veſſels and Urinary Paſſages, which it almoſt inſtantly cures, bringing to rights and reſtoring all thoſe Parts and Paſſages to their natural Tone and priſtine Vigour, in a very extraordinary Manner, and by taking a few Doſes of it only.

This tranſcendent Balſamick Reſtrictive Electuary is neither diſagreeable to take, nor occaſions the leaſt Diſorder, but is a wonderful Reſtorative in all Weakneſs and Decay of Conſtitution of any Kind, and particularly ſtrengthens the Back, Reins, Seminal and Urinary Veſſels, to an immenſe Degree, inſomuch that in any Debility of them, one Doſe of it does more than ten of any other Remedy yet found out; and all Perſons fatigued with Gleets or Seminal Weakneſſes of any Sort, or Weakneſſes of the Urinary Veſſels, who take it, will in three Days time find it ſo very effectual, that they will be moſt agreeably ſurpriſed at it.

When a Medicine will infallibly accompliſh ſuch a ſafe, ſpeedy and perfect Cure of ſuch diſficult Maladies, as Gleets and Seminal Weakneſſes are, as this Great Remedy truly and directly will, even after all other Means and Medicines have been try'd in vain; too much cannot be ſaid in Praiſe of it, and this all who ever took it for any of the abovemention'd Purpoſes, have readily declared.

The Price is but 6s. a Pot, altho' for its abſolute Efficacy, one Pot alone being ſufficient in moſt Caſes to accompliſh a Cure, worth ten time, as much, and by the Author's ſpecial Appointment, is to be had only at Mr. Radford's Toyſhop at the Roſe and Crown againſt St. Clement's Church Yard in the Strand, ready ſealed up, with a Book of Inſtructions, which whomſoever carefully reads will be complete Maſter of his own Caſe, and perfectly know, when the Gleet or Weakneſs he is afflicted with ſucceeds a Venereal Injury, whether all the Malignity of the Foul Diſeaſe is intirely extirpated or not.

Note, Ask only for a 6s. Pot of Balſamick Electuary.

HUNDREDS of LADIES who were deemed incurably barren, and very many who thought themſelves too old to bear Children, have immediately conceived after taking three or four Doſes of them only; and vaſt Numbers of Gentlemen, by taking them, have preſently become capable of propagating their Species who before, through either Imbecility or Age, imagin'd it impoſſible.

They are alſo pleaſant to take, are Cordial to the Stomach, procure an Appetite, and cauſe a good Digeſtion, beyond any thing known in the World. And are to be had only at Mr. Radford's Toyſhop at the Roſe and Crown againſt St. Clement's Church-yard in the Strand At 5s. the Bottle, with Directions.

The only ſhort and infallible Cure for that reigning Diſeaſe the SCURVY, and all Scorbutick Humours, tho' arrived in the higheſt or moſt inveterate Degree, or of ever ſo many Years ſtanding, and that without any ſenſible Evacuation, or the leaſt Purging, which, by an unaccountable Miſtake, is generally adviſed, altho' always found rather to encreaſe and confirm the Scurvy than cure it.

By the ſo much fam'd and moſt pleaſant Chymical DROPS.

WHICH, without the leaſt Trouble, Confinement, or any Diſorder whatever, do at once ſtrike at the true Cauſe of the Scurvy and entirely deſtroy it, and all Scorbutick Humors and Effects, Root and Branch, ſo as never to return again, as many Thouſands of both Sexes have experienced, and as all who take them in Three Days Time are convinced; for they almoſt inſtantly alter the morbid State of the Juices, purify the Blood, ſweeten all the Fluids, cleanſe them from Impurities, and directly clear the whole Habit from all Spots, Blotches, black and blue Marks, Itchings, foul Eruptions or Breakings out, Weakneſs of the Limbs, a languid Heavineſs of the whole Body, wandering Pains, Weakneſs of the Back, and all the vaſt Variety of Symptoms by which the Scurvy imitates and often lies conceal'd under the Appearance of the Rheumatiſm, and many other Diſtempers.

And for ſtrengthening the Stomach, immediately creating a good Appetite, cauſing a regular and eaſy Digeſtion of Food, and curing all windy Effects and Diſorders of the firſt Paſſages, (whence proceed Head-Achs, Vapours, and other Indiſpoſitions) no Bitters, nor any other Medicine upon Earth can compare with them, inſomuch that beſides infallibly curing the Scurvy, in all its Shapes and Appearances they aſſuredly and directly cure the Green-Sickneſs in Virgins, Worms of all Kinds, in Young or Old, and almoſt all other Chronick Diſeaſes, which are chiefly occaſioned by Indigeſtion and flatulent Crudities in the Stomach and Bowels) and certainly prevent Fevers, Agues, and other acute Illneſſes.

They are wonderfully Cordial and Reſtorative, ſtrengthen and enen the whole Machine, and as ſoon as taken, make the Patient pleaſantly ſightſome, brisk and vigorous to Admiration, and are good for all Sorts of Perſons, to preſerve as well as to procure a ſound and healthful State of Body.

But the great Reputation theſe ſo much fam'd and moſt pleaſant Chymical DROPS have ſo univerſally gain'd among Perſons of Eminence, for their ſuddenly and infallibly curing the Scurvy and all Scorbutick Humors and other Chronick Diſeaſes, in ſuch an eaſy and agreeable Manner, have occaſioned many to imitate them, ſome under the ſame, and others under other Names; be careful therefore not to be deceived, but be ſure to have the Right, which by the Author's ſpecial Appointment, are to be had, only at the Gentlewoman's at the two blue Poſts in Haydon Yard in the Minories, at 3s. 6d a Bottle, with Directions.
